

25 May 2017

@ House & Jackson Veterinary Hospital, Rookery Road, Blackmore, Essex, CM4 0LE

Farriery for the Laminitic Journey

Understand laminitis
Improve laminitic hoof care
Introduction to Imprint shoes
Enhance horse welfare and client support

Book on Eventbrite.co.uk or contact Dean Bland at dean@wellequine.co.uk or Becky on 01277823986 if you have any questions

Program

- 6.00 p.m. Arrival and Coffee
- 6.30 p.m. Understanding Laminitis Erik Belloy, House & Jackson
An Introduction to Laminitis from Sub Clinical to Acute Onset including aetiology, the Laminitis-PPID-EMS Triangle, clinical signs for early identification and understanding of X-Rays
- 7.00 p.m. Farriery for the Laminitic Journey Imprint Equine Hoof Care
Opportunities for Soundness and Welfare: An Introduction to Laminitis and the opportunities Farriery can offer for soundness and welfare throughout the key stages of the laminitis journey including Acute Onset Pre First X- Ray, Acute Onset Post First X- Ray, Secondary Crisis - Hoof Wall Avulsion, Whole Life Effecting Chronic Laminitis.
- 7.30 p.m. Hot Buffet Dinner
- 8.00 p.m. Practical Imprint First Shoe Demonstration
- 8.30 p.m. Making every contact count Jenny Lynden, University of Surrey
How farriers can support horse owners' understanding of laminitis
- 9.00 p.m. Building Welfare Partnerships Redwings Horse Sanctuary
An introduction to the Redwings Horse Sanctuary and BFBA 'Building Welfare Partnerships - Farrier CPD Project Essex 2017. Exploring opportunities to support equine welfare and farrier wellbeing through owner understanding. Including an invitation to interested parties to join this innovative research project

Kindly supported by:

